Summary

With a decade of experience as a web developer, SEO strategist, and software engineer, I know what it takes to build a successful website from the ground to effectively nurture and convert your target market. I am experienced in responsive web development using React, Angular, Vue, Node, Express, Redux, Next, JavaScript, TypeScript, jQuery, Bootstrap, MongoDB, PostgreSQL, GraphQL, custom APIs, eCommerce, SEO, and cloud platforms.

I develop unique web apps/websites that drive considerably more sales, results, and leads to your business than the industry average. I have worked in many different industries such as professional services, retail, wine, technology, real estate, entertainment, and healthcare.

Tech Stacks:

- React, Angular, Vue, Next, Node, Express, Tailwind, Material, Bootstrap, jQuery, JavaScript, TypeScript
- PHP, Laravel, Python, Django
- GraphQL, RESTful API, GraphQL, 3rd party API integration
- MongoDB, PostgreSQL, MySQL
- Amazon Web Service

I meticulously manage all website projects from defining scope, market research, and concept development to your website launch and web maintenance support so you stay informed and on track every step of the way. The majority of my clients have been with me for many years because I am very passionate about web development.

In my personal life, I enjoy spending time with friends and family, as well as almost any outdoor activity.
